There is nothing certain as to the other Alderman or the three Councilmen, but it is freely predicted that those making a fight against annexation will be out of the running and that business men who gave their time, influence and support will be chosen. The Richmond Council, it is understood, will be guided largely by recommendations from the other side.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—There is good reason to believe that President Taft and former President Roosevelt have been exchanging messages and communications, and there does not appear to be anything worrying the present occupant of the White House as to the outcome. Neither admissions nor denials of this are obtainable at the White House, but certain things said by the President to a caller indicate that the Chief Executive knows more about what Mr. Roosevelt thinks of the existing administration than some of the correspondents who went to Khartoum to meet the returning hunter of big game.

One of the stories sent from abroad is that Colonel Roosevelt is "souring" toward the President, and will do nothing either to help or harm the future of the Chief Executive.

CITY DEPARTMENTS TO HANDLE PROBLEMS

Annexation of Manchester Will Necessitate Much Municipal Activity and Improvement in Keeping With Agreement.

in Keeping With Agreement.

Probleme growing out of the annexation of Manchester by Richmond were the chief topic of discussion at the City Hall yesterday, as building indicated that the election had been won. In each department there were special difficulties to be considered, resulting from the immediate absorption of so large an unimproved area. Especially is this the case, as under the agreement no energies that would be expended in the present bounds of Richmond are to be diverted, and no ward of the present city is to suffer by reason of the extension.

In the city engineer's office the problems presented loomed largest. Mr. Bolling himself was out during most of the day looking over the ground surveyed for certain new trunk sewers in the West End. Several members of his siaft have been in Manchester and have looked over the ground, and Mr. Bolling has several times conferred with Engineer La Prade, of the southside city, with a view of ascertaining immediate needs, it is agreed that a new topographical survey must be the first step.

The levels and grades must be established and made a matter of record before any extensive improvements can be undertaken—before any streets can be graded or paved, and before any extensive from the capter with Richmond. The city is agreed that a new topographical survey must be the first step.

In the School Board office the only question is one of bookkeeping and transferring—putting the names of the teachers on the regular city payroll. Cyclone Injured Score of Persons and Wrecked Many Youngstown, O., April 4.—A cyclone of three minutes' duration late to-day left in its wake to the southeast of the city a score of injured persons, thousands of frightened ones, ten demolished houses and 100 partially wrecked. The loss is upwards of $100, 000. The storm did the heaviest damage in Langsville, where it razed five houses and wrecked three others. At Hazelton it wrecked the power plant of the Republic Iron and Steel Company's plant, crushed in the store and saloon fronts on both sides of Center Street, unroofed and demolished the gable of the Methodist Church, blew in windows of the public schools, and, gan the day's grind. He found Secretaries Nagel and Ballinger and Postmaster-General Hitchcock, with a number of Congressmen, waiting for him. The visits of the Cabinet officers related, it is, said, to routine affairs of the departments, and was not of widespread importance.

There was no discussion—official or otherwise—of the deeply interesting incident affecting Colonel Roosevelt and the Pope. Newspaper men around the White House were reminded of the good old Roosevelt days, when sensational stuff of all sorts was held back for the Monday morning papers, so as to avoid the advertising rush of Sunday, and when the former President got there first with the "goods."

Public men kept off the subject entirely, except to smile at the methods and manner of the ex-President in putting the facts before the country.

Well - Known Citizen, Among Last of the Forty - Niners, Passes Away, Aged 86.

Charles M. Wallace, "Forty-niner,"
Confederate veteran and one of the most unique citizens Richmond ever produced, died last night at 11:35 at his residence, 2803 East Franklin Street, in the eighty-sixth yoar of his age. He was born February 24, 1825, age. He was born February 24, 1825, age. He was born February 24, 1825, alterine Leighy. His father settled in this city as a merchant in 1816, Mr. Wallace was one of the first to leave this State for the West when gold was discovered in California, reaching that State in the fall of 1849, He crossed the plains in company with Moon rises. 5:51

Dave Terry, afterwards Judge of the Supreme Court of California, and settled in the San Joaquin Valley, near Coultersville. He first became a miner well later went into the cattle business on an extensive scale. During the seven years he lived in the West he was a pariner of Charles M. Blair, a member of the Biair family of this city. He was also famous as a hunter, being well known to all the famous mountain men of the time.

Went to Nicaragum.

He returned to the States by way of Nicaragua, where he had accompanied an expedition which went to the support of General William Walker. On his arrival here he went into the wholesale grocery business as senior partner of the firm of William Wallace's Sons. Soon after he married Miss Joyce W. Clopton, the daughter of Judge John Bacon Clopton, who died three years ago.

At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted in the Fayette Battery, but was not mustered in at that time because the battery was full. He, however, accompanied the battery to the front and took part in the first engagements. Later he and John Howard, of this city, raised and equipped an artillery battery, which for some reason was not accepted by the government. He then enlisted in the cavalry and served to the end of the war, taking part in the battles around Richmond and Second Cold Harbor. He acted as courier for General Harrison a number of times.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

DELANEY—At a meeting of the Committee on Water of the Council of the city of Richmond, held in the City Hall on Thursday, the 31st day of March, 1910, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:
Whereas, ALEXANDER DELANEY, who was Superintendent of the Pump-Houses for fourteen years, departed this life on the 23d day of March, 1910, in the eightleth year of his age, and after solemn observation of the sage, and after solemn observation of the city of Richmond, desire to place on every discovery and we, the Committee on Water of the Council of the city of Richmond, desire to place on record this memorial of our appreciation of him; therefore, be it
Resolved. That in the death of Mr. Delaney the city of Richmond has lost an officer whose ability as a mechanical engineer was of the highest order; whose intelligence, experience and training eminently fitted him for the position he occupied; who zealously and with the greatest efficiency discharged every duty devolved upon him, and who was always faithful to every trust.

Second. That In his death we have lost a valuable officer and friend, who, by his sense of justice, consideration, kindness and gentle courtesy, won and retained our confidence and affection.

Third. That we tender to the family of our departed friend our sincere sympathy, and trust that they may find solace in the reflection that he is now enjoying the reward of the faithful.
